

Welcome to Third Ave

from the Pews . . . and beyond

January 3, 2016

The Mission of Third Avenue United Church is to reach out with love and provide a welcoming place, especially for downtown people. We offer strength, courage, and support in a safe nurturing environment.

We welcome everyone joining us this Sunday.

Affirming

If you missed a session please feel free to borrow a copy of information for a couple of days, these are to be shared. It will be in the Affirming Ministry mailbox in the lower hall. You are welcome to view the videos at the church. Call the office to book a time.

Thank you

A big thank you to everyone who helped make our Advent go so well. We had lots of volunteers with decorating, reading, lighting candles, playing music, singing, leading worship, ushering, making coffee, preparing communion, cooking, serving, setting up and closing after worship, making ornaments, cleaning, shopping, and the list goes on. This congregation is made up of very giving people who are there for each other and the community. Thank you for being a part of Third Avenue this past Advent. Please invite your friends and neighbours to join us in the future.

Observer

Renewals and new subscriptions to the Observer magazine may be made in the church office. Cost $25 for the year.

Offering Envelopes

Your 2016 offering envelopes are in the Narthex for you to pick up. Please have a look for your name. Beware that your envelope number may have changed. If you would like to start receiving envelopes to ensure you receive a tax receipt, please let book keeper Philip Bray know. Thanks.

Humor from the pews

Jemima was taking an afternoon nap on New Year's Eve before the festivities. After she woke up, she confided to Max, her husband, 'I just dreamed that you gave me a diamond ring for a New Year's present. What do you think it all means?'

'Aha, you'll know tonight,' answered Max smiling broadly.

At midnight, as the New Year was chiming, Max approached Jemima and handed her a small package. Delighted and excited she opened it quickly. There in her hand rested a book entitled: 'The meaning of dreams'.

The Staff and Unified Board of Third Avenue
Wish you and your family a joyful, bright, healthy, prosperous and happiest new year ahead. !!

Happy New Year!
